Walk in My Shoes

Walk In My Shoes was performed by the Wolves. They worked very hard to put it together and we hope that you enjoyed the presentation. If you would like further information you can look at the book "Caring Animals" by Rosanna Hansen, available through Scholastic Books. Ms. Hansen has written many other children's books providing information on nature and science related topics. The following websites can provide you with more information on the three Animal Therapy groups highlighted tonight:

www.petplanet.co.uk This site will give you more information on Allen Parton and his dog Endal.

www.caninepartners.co.uk This site will give you more information on how assistance dogs are trained and matched with partners.

www.guidehorse.com This website will tell you more about miniature horses and their training as guide animals.

www.helpinghandsonmonkeys.org This website provides information about monkeys and their work assisting disabled people.

Pack Positions

Assistant Cubmaster-Tibor Sipos has graciously stepped up to the plate. We would really like to have another Assistant Cubmaster if anyone is interested.

Registration Coordinators-Dana Kurzrock and Julie Gassler
